The Forces for London programme provides employment support to ex-forces personnel who would like help to find long term, sustainable employment or training.

We provide one-to-one advice and guidance with a dedicated advisor, and can arrange volunteering, mentoring, work experience and training to help you get the right skills.

RFEA is the leading provider of employment advice for ex-Forces, so we understand the issues you may face and can advise you on suitable jobs, training and your local jobs market.

// I cannot fault the support from RFEA. They have opened my eyes to so many opportunities.

We exist to provide life-long, life-changing support, jobs and training opportunities to service leavers and veterans, irrespective of circumstances, rank, length of service, or reason for leaving.

Founded in 1885 and operating across the UK, we have the specialist knowledge and understanding to bridge the gap between military life and civilian employment.

We work in partnership with other organisations and employers who, like us, respect and value the unique qualities and abilities of all those who have served.

Working in partnership with

MAYOR OF LONDON Developed by Team London, the Mayor of London's volunteering programme, Forces for London is delivered in partnership with RFEA and co-funded by the European Social Fund and the Greater London Authority

Walking With The Wounded supports a pathway for vulnerable veterans to re-integrate into society and sustain their independence.

Stoll is the leading provider of supported housing to vulnerable and disabled veterans.
